The Heritage Trail is a Red Painted line that leads Salem's visitors on a walk through Salem's rich history. Founded in 1626 by Roger Conant as a small Cod fishing village named Naumkeag. Naumkaeg was re named "Salem" by Governor John Endicott in 1628. This small coastal city was consumed in 1692 by the fear of something wicked during its Witch hysteria, 19 were hanged and one pressed to death. After The Boston Tea Party in 1773 Boston's port was blockaded leaving Salem as America's most thriving sea port thriving till the mid 1830's. Today Salem is a monument to America's early history.
